Thursday

February 23, 2017

8 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Partnership for Children of Cumberland County
351 Wagoner Drive, Suite 200
Multipurpose Room #2328
Fayetteville, NC 28303

In affiliation with Duke University Medical Center
Part of the NC AHEC Program

Target Audience

Nutritionists, dietitians, pharmacists, nurses, pharmacy techs, case managers and other health care workers interested in learning more about working with the obesity epidemic.

Program Description

We all know the obesity epidemic is growing and has long term effects on one's overall health and morbidity. This one day program will provide strategies for the health care worker to incorporate in their treatment of patients.

Outcome and Objectives

To provide practical strategies that will enhance the knowledge and skills for health care providers to improve the outcomes in obesity care.

Upon completion of this knowledge-based program, pharmacists should be able to:

- Discuss strategies for the successful management of overweight and obese patients when considering the addition of pharmacotherapy management to existing weight loss efforts;
- Describe obesity's impact on the development and treatment of type 2 diabetes;
- Identify strategies to effective communication about obesity to improve provide-patient communication about weight related health; and
- List and understand various methods of weight-loss surgical options.
