ABOUT THE PROGRAM

HEY DOC – WHAT’S THIS SPOT? Rashes, itches, spots, lumps or bumps: skin disease is a frequent complaint of patients in all clinical settings. This conference is designed to provide physicians an opportunity to review both simple and serious skin problems commonly seen in the office and inpatient settings. Emphasis will be given to: skin problems prevalent in primary care practices; developments in the field of office practice dermatology; dermatologic manifestations of internal disease; and diseases more commonly seen in our region.

OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this program, participants should have a greater understanding and knowledge of strategies to integrate into practice new developments in the following:

Skin Manifestations of Common Infections in the Primary Care Setting: ⚙️ Identify a variety of skin infections you can diagnose in your office ⚙️ Discuss how to begin proper treatment of these infections

Non-Melanoma Skin Cancers for the Primary Care Practitioner: ⚙️ Identify patients who have a high-risk non-melanoma skin cancer ⚙️ Recognize high risk non-melanoma skin cancers and when to refer ⚙️ Discuss most appropriate treatment pathways for high risk non-melanoma skin cancers

Dermatologic Practice Gaps in Primary Care: ⚙️ Review current management of skin problems such as hidradenitis, scabies, etc. ⚙️ Discuss various ways to correctly diagnose and treat these problems

Skin Problems Related to Psychiatric Diseases: ⚙️ Recognize a variety of dermatologic problems related to underlying psychiatric issues ⚙️ Identify an approach to coming to an understanding about the condition with your patient ⚙️ Examine pitfalls of prognosis of these conditions

Geriatric Dermatology: ⚙️ Recognize common skin problems in the elderly ⚙️ Investigate ways to be better able to treat these skin ailments in older individuals

A Simplified Approach to a Patient with Skin Blisters: ⚙️ Describe common skin problems which lead to skin blisters ⚙️ Identify an approach to diagnosis of these problems ⚙️ Discuss an initial treatment of these problems ⚙️ Recognize when to refer patients with blisters

Hair and Nail Problems for the Primary Care Practitioner: ⚙️ Discuss common problems related to the hair and nails ⚙️ Identify an approach to diagnosis of these problems ⚙️ Explore a basic understanding of the treatment of these problems

Interesting Cases from Down-East: ⚙️ Recognize, manage and treat a variety of skin problems – especially those related to our region

TARGET AUDIENCE

This conference has been planned for Physicians in Internal Medicine, Family Medicine, and Pediatrics and may be of interest to other physician specialists, Nurse Practitioners and Physician Assistants, Nurse Midwives and Pharmacists.
